- Celebrate OJHS

G2S is a program developed and ran by Rachel Quintana. It now has become digital with teachers and staff being able to scan the students ID and give them points. The G2S program encourages students to not only raise their grades but to become involved and participate in school activities, doing service for others, make a connection with their teachers, and by setting goals to become successful in school. When they earn points, they can spend it the in-school store that Ms. Quintana has set up. All students are encouraged to participate.

PLC/Team Time

Ashley Belnap and Lindsey Zufelt attended summer collaboration with five OJH teams. They helped facilitate the PLC Results Cycle and guided teams to a goal within the PLC Cycle.

- Team Reports from Summer Collaboration

Social Studies Department: 7th grade and 8th grade team: Implemented a new State Core; created a curriculum map and unit calendars; wrote learning targets for every day of the year; re-designed assessments to match the learning targets.

Science Department: The science team collaborated to identify specific standards that could be addressed using Canvas as an online tool. Once these standards were identified, they began modifying the assignments to allow students the opportunity to do the assignments online. The work was not to "eliminate the teacher" but rather to provide students a different format on how to show their understanding. This work was done because of the ChromeBooks provided by Alpine District. One challenge has been to consider and develop ways they can help students show deeper understanding of content and information they learn.

- 6 C's

OJH along with LRJH, OCJH, CVJH, THS and MVHS are participating in a district pilot program 6 C's which are Communication, Critical Thinking, Creativity, Citizenship, Character and Collaboration. We want students to gain content knowledge but also knowledge and learning of the 6 C's. The team consists of Administration-Teachers-Counselor.
